

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

GENERAL INSTRUCTOR SCHOOL

Date: May 4-8, 2015

Time: 8:00am-5:00pm
Daily with additional work done outside of classroom

The Department of Juvenile Justice Training Academy is pleased to announce that we will be co-hosting with the Department of Criminal Justice Services, a General Instructor School. This 40 hour course is designed to meet the training requirements for DCJS instructor certification. The goal of the program is to prepare criminal justice professionals with the basic skills necessary to develop lesson plans, present material, public speaking, and develop testing methods.

This class requires a minimum two years' experience in a criminal justice agency in order to attend. There is limited space so reserve your slot right away. We are proud to offer this course at no charge to criminal justice agencies.

All training manuals will be provided.

Contact person: Jerri L. Smith
Email jerri.smith@djj.virginia.gov
Desk 804.537.6653
Cell 804.382.3975

Virginia Public Safety Training Center
7093 Broad Neck Road
Hanover, VA 23069
Phone: 804.537-5316

- Methods of Instruction
- Preparations and Use of Lesson Plans
- Role of the Instructor
- Writing Training Objectives
- Civil Liability
- 20 Minute Presentations

These are just a few topics that will be covered